

THE MORNINGTON PENINSULA

The Mornington Peninsula, on the eastern side of Port Phillip Bay, feels like an island. With a vast ocean to the south, and bays and sheltered beaches on either side, as you drive along you could be forgiven for thinking that you have left Australia behind. Fertile hills roll down to pretty beaches and harbours, and serene bay views abound. Rolling hills of olive groves and vineyards boast accommodation with sea views, and local produce is served in romantic restaurants and sold at bustling markets.
